Thursday 10th July – Happy to be me! @ CHF

Thursday 17th July – Field of fun & BBQ @ CHF

Next term starts Thursday 11th September

YG REVISITED 19th June – we were looking at humility, we started by looking at quotes about being humble/showing humility. We then heard a really amazing powerful story called ‘Ragman’ by Walter Wangerin, after chatting about the story we moved onto the more light hearted part of the evening. We enjoyed watching a clip from the end of the Disney film ‘Cars’ where the Rookie Lightning McQueen gave up the chance to win the Piston Cup to help another car to finish his last ever race. We then discussed the meanings behind it and how it related to our lives which then led us into our final part of the evening where everyone was challenged to think of something they do for someone in a humble way rather than for the glory. After we had closed in prayer, yes of course it was nibbles and drink time.

YG REVISITED again 26th June – Thank you David and Lesley. I think I can speak on behalf of all the youth and leaders when I say we had another wonderful night in your swimming pool. We had so many laughs and such fun. With ball games, races, and doing different tricks in the water. We also loved the BBQ and cakes. Also thanks to R who brought her yummy birthday cake to share with everyone.

Thank you to all the soul friends from all the people on House party. Thanks for praying for us during the house party weekend, as you may have heard we had a great time.

A poem

NOT PSALM 23

The clock is my dictator, I shall not rest.
It makes me lie down only when exhausted.
It leads me to deep depression, it hounds my soul.
It leads me in circles of frenzy for activity's sake.
Even though I run frantically from task to task,
I will never get it all done. For my 'ideal' is with me.
Deadlines and my need for approval, they drive me.
They demand performance from me, beyond the limits of my schedule.
They anoint my head with migraines, my in-tray overflows.
Surely fatigue and time pressure shall follow me all the days of life,
And I will dwell in the bonds of frustration forever.

YOUTH HOME GROUP

A couple of weeks ago we went crabbing, which I have to say was brilliant. I haven't done it for years and it was so much fun, losing nets over the edge then finding them again when the tide went out. Thankfully we didn't lose anyone over the edge. We caught 40-50 crabs between us although some people were more successful than others.

Last week at YHG we really enjoyed a Murder Mystery party 'Death by Chocolate', it was a really funny evening with people really getting into character and dressing for the part. There was a lot of thinking to be done and we had to try and remember so much information to find out who committed the deadly deed.

Come and give us a look, its open to ANYONE year 10 or above. Contact the office on 01986-894494 for more info.

How High and How Wide by Mark Altrogge

No eye has seen and no ear has heard and no mind has ever conceived the glorious things that you have prepared for everyone who has believed;
You brought us near and you called us
your own,
and made us joint heirs with your Son.

How high and how wide how deep and how long how sweet and how strong is your love;
How lavish your grace
how faithful your ways
how great is your love, O Lord!

Objects of mercy, who should have know wrath,
we're filled with unspeakable joy,
riches of wisdom, unsearchable wealth,
and the wonder of knowing your voice;
You are our treasure and our great reward,
our hope and our glorious King.

Sam's favourite song that he sings in assembly at school.

READINGS & COLLECT

Romans 7:14-25a

Matthew 11:25-30

O God, patient and forbearing, you alone know fully the goodness of what you have made. Strengthen our spirit when we are slow and temper our zeal when we are rash, that in your own good time you may produce in us a rich harvest from the seed you have sown and tended. We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen

..... PLEASE .. PRAY .. FOR

..... the Youth Group team as they enter a period of change.

Ask God for His spirit to work in those involved as they work together and continue guiding the youth in their Christian faith. Ask the Lord to also guide leaders for the future.
